Veterinary Internal and Preventive Medicine Society (VIPMS)

Dear Colleagues,

The Department of Veterinary Medicine, Post Graduate Institute of Veterinary Education & Research (PGIVER), Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RUVAS), Jaipur, in collaboration with the Veterinary Internal and Preventive Medicine Society (VIPMS), cordially invites scientists, academicians, veterinarians, researchers, students, industry professionals and policymakers to participate in the 7th Annual Convention of VIPMS and National Symposium on "Veterinary Medicine in the Digital Era: Leveraging Artificial Intelligence for Sustainable Animal Health and One Health," to be held from 26–28 October 2026 at Jaipur, Rajasthan.

The conference will provide an excellent platform for exchanging scientific knowledge, sharing innovative research, discussing emerging diseases, digital technologies, artificial intelligence applications, precision livestock farming, One Health initiatives, antimicrobial resistance, sustainable animal production, and future challenges in veterinary medicine.

The three-day scientific event will include keynote lectures, plenary sessions, lead papers, oral and poster presentations, panel discussions, industry-scientist interactions, farmer-scientist interactions, and student activities. The conference aims to promote interdisciplinary collaboration among veterinarians, biomedical scientists, public health experts, industry partners and policymakers for advancing sustainable animal health and food security.

We look forward to welcoming you to the historic Pink City of Jaipur for an enriching scientific experience and warm Rajasthani hospitality.

With Warm Regards
Team: VIPMCON-2026

About RUVAS (Jobner) JAIPUR AND PGIVER

The Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (Jobner) Jaipur is a constituted body corporate established under sub-section (3) of section 1 of the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences Act, 2023. The University came into existence on 21st day of September, 2023 and is the second Veterinary University in the state of Rajasthan. The Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, (Jobner) Jaipur, has been established with the objective of advancing education, research, and extension in the field of Veterinary and Animal Sciences. The University primarily serves four divisions of the State namely Ajmer, Jaipur, Bharatpur, and Kota, covering eastern and south-eastern parts of Rajasthan, in order to contribute to the national development through the veterinary and animal sciences sector. The University is advancing with significant strides in offering technical and scientific support to aim at transforming the State's animal husbandry and allied sectors from a subsistence model to one with the enhanced profitability through scientific and technological advancements, coupled with favorable policy framework. Rajasthan has emerged into a national leader as far as the production of milk, meat, and wool is concerned. This progress underscores the University's vital role in promoting productivity, sustainability, and economic growth of the State through the animal husbandry sector.

The Post-Graduate Institute of Veterinary Education & Research (PGIVER) which is pioneer institute in the field of Veterinary & Animal Sciences in India was established under 12th five year plan by Govt. of Rajasthan in the year 2012. The University intends to develop the institute as "A Centre of Excellence for Higher Veterinary Education". Now this institute is a constituted unit of Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (Jobner) Jaipur.

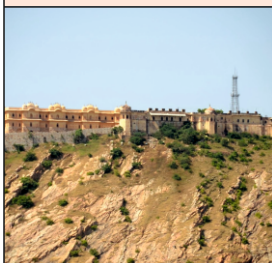

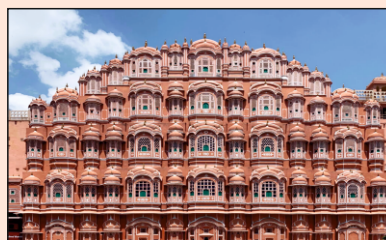

About VIPMS

The Veterinary Internal and Preventive Medicine Society (VIPMS) is a registered professional scientific society (Registration No. MAT/07824/2018-19) under the Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860. The Society provides a common platform for academicians, scientists, veterinarians, postgraduate students, research scholars and professionals working in veterinary medicine and allied disciplines. Since its inception, VIPMS has been actively promoting excellence in veterinary education, research, clinical medicine, disease prevention, extension education and technology dissemination. Today, the Society has more than 700 life members representing State Veterinary Universities, ICAR Institutes, Central and State Government organizations, private institutions and industry. VIPMS regularly organizes annual conventions, conferences, scientific symposia, continuing education programmes and capacity-building activities. About Rajasthan & Jaipur

Rajasthan, the largest state of India by geographical area, is renowned for its magnificent forts, palaces, temples, vibrant culture and rich historical heritage. Jaipur, popularly known as the Pink City, is India's first planned city and forms an integral part of the famous Golden Triangle tourist circuit comprising Delhi, Agra and Jaipur. Visitors can explore iconic landmarks including Amber Fort, Jaigarh Fort, Nahargarh Fort, City Palace, Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar (UNESCO World Heritage Site), Jal Mahal and numerous museums, gardens and traditional bazaars famous for gemstones, handicrafts and Rajasthani cuisine. The city's unique blend of royal heritage and modern infrastructure makes it an ideal destination for hosting national- international scientific conferences.

Weather and Accommodation: During October, Jaipur experiences pleasant autumn weather with daytime temperatures ranging between 29-32°C and night temperatures between 19-23°C. Participants are advised to carry light woollen clothing for comfortable evenings. Accommodation will be arranged in nearby hotels and resorts on a payment basis, subject to prior confirmation. Double occupancy rooms are expected to cost approximately ₹2,000-₹5,000 per room per day. Hostel accommodation at nominal charges will be available for registered students and research scholars on a first-come, first-served basis. Faculty members/delegates may also book nearby hotels on their own.
